Oosterhous Seeking Seat

Lawrence A. Oosterhous, an economist, yesterday announced his Democratic candidacy from Maryland's Fifth District for the seat held by Rep. Richard E. Lankford (D), who said earlier this week he would run for a fifth term.

Oosterhous, of 904 Glazewood ct., Takoma Park, a former City Councilman, is associated with the American Industrial Insurance Company of Philadelphia. He was at one time director of research for the National Federation of American Shipping and a member of J. D. Marsh & Associates, estate planners.

Between 1940 and 1951 he served with the National Resources Planning Board, the Maritime Commission and as transportation economist and intelligence officer for the Central Intelligence Agency.
